SIR

I have the honour to inform you that Mr J Denham Md, President of the Students' Home attached to the Maharaja's College asks for a grant of Rs 6 in addition to its present grant of Rs 65/- a month for the purpose of employing a gardener on Rs 6. Recently railings have been put up round the building and a number of trees and plants have been newly laid down in the Compound of the Student's Home These trees and plants require to be watered and taken care of and will prove of use for purposes of shade and ornament to the Home. I beg therefore to to recommend that Government may be pleased to sanction an increase of the present grant by Rs 6 from the Savings pointed out in my letter No 9663/396 dated 3rd May 1904 under Grants in aid in the Budget of the department.
